

SOFTWARE DISCLAIMER

All the information, including technical and engineering data, processes, and results, presented in CivilTech software has been prepared according to recognized contracting and/or engineering principles, and is for general information only. If anyone uses CivilTech software for any specific application without an independent competent professional examination and verification of its accuracy, suitability, and applicability by a licensed professional engineer, he/she does so at his/her own risk and assumes any and all liability resulting from such use. No warranty is offered as to the accuracy of results from CivilTech software.

The software products should not be used for design unless caution is taken to interpret the results and to check the results independently. Users are assumed to be knowledgeable in the information of the output reports. Users are assumed to recognize that the input data can have a significant effect on the solution and must be selected carefully. Users should have a thorough understanding of the relevant theoretical criteria.

In no event shall CivilTech be held liable for any damages including lost profits, lost savings, or other incidental or consequential damages resulting from the use of or inability to use the information contained within. Information in software and manuals is subject to change without notice and does not represent a commitment on the part of CivilTech.

CivilTech software is furnished under a license agreement, and the software may be used only in accordance with the terms of the agreement. The software or user manual shall not be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without prior written consent from CivilTech.
